

Stefan Brunnhuber

Trained car mechanic - Studied Medicine and Socioeconomics in tandem - PhD in Medicine - PhD in Socioeconomics - Student of Sir R. Dahrendorf - Over 12 international guest professorships - (Medicine - Finance - Sustainability) - Two board-certified medical specializations - Multiple sub-specializations - Over 10 years as Vice-chairman of the European Institute of Medicine - Medical Director and Chief Medical Officer in Germany (Saxony) - Senator (elected in 2015) of the European Academy of Science and Arts - Member of several international working groups in the Club of Rome, European Academy, EU Commission - Political consulting - Founding member of Alma Mater Europeae - One of 15 German members of the World Academy of Arts and Science - Endowed Professor for Psychology & Sustainability - Special expertise and experience in the impact of Life Science on sustainability issues, especially Psychology of the Anthropocene - Behavioral Finance - Post-growth scenarios - Psychology of interfaith dialogue - Over 300 publications and talks - several international lecture series - co-author of the latest Club of Rome report (Money and Sustainability 2014) - Co-author of one of the bestselling textbooks in Germany of the last 25 years - author of 'The Art of Transformation' (2016, editions in several languages in press)

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brunnhuber". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Dresden 2017

Stefan Brunnhuber
www.stefan-brunnhuber.de