

Stefan Brunnhuber

Trained car mechanic - Studied Medicine and Socioeconomics in tandem - PhD in Medicine - PhD in Socioeconomics - Student of Sir R. Dahrendorf - Over 12 international guest professorships - (Medicine - Mental Health - Finance - Sustainability) - Two board-certified medical specializations - Multiple board certified sub-specializations, including addictive medicine, pain management, psychosomatics, social medicine, acupuncture and naturopathy among others. Over 10 years as Vice-chairman of the European Institute of Medicine - Medical Director and Chief Medical Officer in Germany (Saxony) - Senator (elected in 2015) of the European Academy of Science and Arts - Member of several international working groups at the Club of Rome, European Academy, EU Commission - Political consulting - Founding member of Alma Mater Europeae - Member and Board of Trustees of the World Academy of Arts and Science - Endowed Professor for Psychology, Sustainability & Social medicine. Special expertise and experience in the field of financing health care, impact of life style modifications on different medical conditions, Mental Health and complementary and alternative Medicine. Over 300 publications and talks - several international lecture series - Co-author of one of the bestselling medical textbooks in Germany of the last 25 years - author of 'The Art of Transformation' (2016, editions in several languages in press); The Open Society - A Pledge for Freedom and Order (2019)

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brunnhuber". The script is cursive and fluid.

Dresden 2019

Stefan Brunnhuber
www.stefan-brunnhuber.de