

STEFAN BRUNNHUBER

Trained car mechanic - Studied Medicine and Socioeconomics in tandem - PhD in Medicine - PhD in Socioeconomics - Student of Sir R. Dahrendorf - Over 12 international guest professorships - (Medicine - Finance - Sustainability) - Two board- certified medical specializations - Multiple sub-specializations - Over 10 years as Vice-chairman of the European Institute of Medicine - Medical Director and Chief Medical Officer in Germany (Saxony) - Senator (2015-2020) of the European Academy of Science and Arts - Member of several international working groups for the European Academy, EU Commission - Political and corporate consulting (GENCAP; INATBA ao.) - Founding member of Alma Mater Europaeae - Board of Trustees the World Academy of Arts and Science - Full international Member Club of Rome - Endowed Professor for Psychology & Sustainability - Special expertise and experience in the impact of life science on sustainability issues, especially Psychology of the Anthropocene - Behavioral Finance - Risk analysis - new financial engineering - Over 500 publications and talks - numerous international lecture series - co-author of the report to the Club of Rome (Money and Sustainability 2014) - Co- author of one of the bestselling textbooks in Germany of the last 25 years - 'The Art of Transformation' (2016, editions in several languages) - ,the Open Society - A Pledge for Freedom and Order (2019) - ,Financing our Future' - (2021) - ,Financing our Anthropocene' (2023) - ,Freedom and Control, (in press 2023) - Federal K. Tschirra award 2020 - Member of Friends of the Earth - Member of the german Liberal Party (FDP), the national economic forum of the Liberal Party (2020-) - The Lancet-Commission (2021-2022), Federal governmental board ,Sustainable Finance' (2022-)

